Wednesday, March 4, 2020

8:00am-11:30am

SESSION: WI Threat Brief/Cyber-Attacks, what every department should know

SPEAKERS: WI DOJ - Threat Analyst Brett Van Ess, Cyber Analyst Mike Hemberger

DESCRIPTION: The Wisconsin Statewide Information Center (WSIC), the state's primary intelligence fusion center, will provide an assessment of the current domestic and international terrorist threat to Wisconsin. This presentation will also provide an overview of how the national network of fusion centers support local and state customers and how to report suspicious activity in Wisconsin. Law enforcement agencies in Wisconsin regularly experience attempted attacks by cyber criminals. In this session, we will review examples of successful cyber-attacks against Wisconsin law enforcement agencies. Whether its Eastern European credit-card fraud using your squad room computer, or a ransomware attack against your department, there are measures you can take to protect yourself. Join us to learn how basic cyber-hygiene, when practiced correctly, can help save your department from a very bad day.
